We put him through a series of questions and found he knew the number reries dates name of bank which all are supposed to remainler about lost bills, then we turned it over to him which shows how safe it is to lose money on the streets of Dothan He promised to give Juhan a marriage beense need of such an instrument and we haven't told him what we'd exact for the part we played

We suggested that he leave t he wouldn't be so hable to be willing to do his work he less t dropping his green goods all over the streets
